

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, one of the most distinctive features of man is his complex process of communication; and

WHEREAS, good speech and good hearing are essential to the complete communication process; and

WHEREAS, there are many children and adults in need of speech and hearing services in South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, the profession of speech and hearing in South Dakota is striving to bring competent service to the people of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Speech and Hearing Association will be having its Eighth Annual Spring Convention-Workshop at South Dakota State University on May First and Second, 1970;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, hereby proclaim the week of April 26 to May 2, 1970, as

SPEECH AND HEARING WEEK IN SOUTH DAKOTA

I urge all citizens to observe this week by becoming cognizant of the services of this profession and the importance of good speech and hearing in today's world.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capitol City, this 9th day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy.
